

Archives of Latin American and Caribbean History

Sixteenth to Twentieth Century

Explore five centuries of enriching primary sources, including original manuscripts, monographs, newspapers, and periodicals, and get context on the current issues and events in Latin America and the Caribbean.

Over 1.2 million pages of material, including articles, letters, and manifestos.

More than 7,000 issues of 156 newspapers, from regional to national editions.

Over 80,000 monographs and manuscripts, with the oldest published in 1400.

36 specially curated collections, including 18 from the US Department of State

Source taken from the Archives of Latin American and Caribbean History

AN APPEALING AND BENEFICIAL RESOURCE FOR ACADEMICS, STUDENTS, AND LIBRARIES WITH AN INTEREST IN LATIN AMERICAN AND CARIBBEAN REGIONAL HISTORY.

Curated by and for Latin American academics, the Archives of Latin American and Caribbean History unlocks thousands of previously inaccessible primary source documents from libraries across the world. The historical collections provide more than 1.2 million pages of original manuscripts, signed letters, expedition records, reports, maps, diaries, descriptions of voyages, ephemera, and more.

WHAT MAKES THIS ARCHIVE UNIQUE?

- Features more than 1.2 million pages of digitised historical and contemporary primary sources
- Contains historical material dating back to the sixteenth century and provides perspectives on indigenous culture and society, as well as the colonial ambitions of Spain and Portugal
- Content in Spanish, Portuguese, and English
- Includes colonial manuscripts, rare volumes and documents, official letters, pamphlets, serials, posters, newsletters and newspapers, personal papers, and declassified US Government despatches – all providing multiple ways to access the fascinating history of Latin America and the Caribbean

Various sources taken from the Archives of Latin American and Caribbean History

For more information or to request a FREE trial, please visit

 gale.com/uncoverlach